More connections. Better access to venues.
Different ways to get around easily.

Consistently ranked as one of the best airports in North America for overall passenger convenience, Calgary International Airport is Alberta's premier international gateway, with more than 1,800 flights per week from around the world. Calgary's airport serves more than 12 million passengers per year, offers non-stop flights to over 60 international cities and is only one stop away from every major city in the world.

All of our meeting venues and guest rooms are conveniently located within a 20-minute drive of the airport. Plus, you'll find Calgary convenient and easy to get around – whether you choose to navigate our well-maintained roadways in a rental vehicle, catch a ride on our eco-friendly public transit system or hire a taxi or limousine service. For those with disabilities, Calgary features accessible attractions, public transit options and guest rooms.

Looking for more, better, different? Look no further than Calgary.

More.
Better.
Different.

Better.

Better attendance. Better options. Better incentives. Better planning support. Better for business. Better backyard. Better pre and post adventures. Better international event experience. Better provincial sales tax (there isn't any!).

Calgary meetings, conferences and conventions just keep getting better!

Different.

Different experiences – from bull-riding to ballet. Different views – from mountains to prairies. Different venues – from high-tech convention centres to boutique business suites. Different tastes – from home-grown favourites to international flavours.

Calgary is a study in contrasts. And our differences will make all the difference for your next event.

More.

More white hats. More energy. More innovative and easier to work with. More flexibility. More direct flights. More outdoor activity. More culture, festivals, theatre, dining and shopping. More days of sunshine than any other Canadian city.

You want more from your meeting and convention destination – and Calgary delivers!
